Through Harvey and Harriet Bookstein's generosity and support, the Institute provides a number of scholarships to students who demonstrate excellence and promise in the field of taxation. The student or students who will be selected to receive the Bookstein Tax Clinic Fellowship must have demonstrated outstanding service in the Clinic and a desire to provide service to the low-income individuals who the Clinic serves. The Bookstein Tax Clinic Fellowships may total up to $2,500. More information about the scholarships, please download the attached application.
